Silk Merchants are Dumfounded

LMOST every silk importer and manufacturer's agent in New York visited the store yesterday. If you could see the silks through their spectacles we should need to open new selling places. We do not say this to inveigle you into hasty buying-we do not even ask that you buy

It's enough to print the best silk news any store has had in the past half dozen years, and let you draw your own conclusions.

250,000 Yards of New Silks AT AN AVERAGE HALF PRICE

In a nutshell—the mill-men expected to become storekeepers as well. The p'an failed at the last minute, and just as the silks were coming from the looms. The idea was to have a store to sell wide silks-the kind commercial tailors like, and, of course, they could not be quickly sold through the general trade, because almost no store has silk shelving that would hold the long pieces. It was a question whether to peddle them around among the tailors and dressmakers or take the loss in a lump. We were the one available outlet. And here the silks came.

One often reads of "silk sales" wherein flimsy fabrics and stagnant styles are worked off at a low price.

But this occasion is different. The silks are, with one or two exceptions, brand new-the favored Taffetas of the year. Here's a list of them: 95c a vard for $1.50 to $2 quality - Rich | fancy taffetas; many styles, for many uses; 27 in. wide.

$1.10 a yard for $2.25 quality Satin striped taffetas; suitable for coat linings; 27 in.

$1.15 a yard for $2.25 quality-Fancy taffetas, with hair-lines of black and white between rich satin stripes in colors; 27 in. wide. $1.25 a yard for $3 quality -Ombre striped taffetas, on barre stripes of black and white: 27 in. wide.

$1.25 a yard for $3 quality - New plaid taffetas, shepherd's plaid taffetas and plain plaid taffetas; all 27 in. wide.

$1.15 a yard for $2.25 quality-Satin-striped taffetas; stripes of black satin on grounds of red and blue.

$1.25 a yard for $2.50 quality-Richly colored taffetas; triple cross-bars of satin on double colors forming a plaid; 27 in. wide. 75c a yard for $1.25 quality-Fine taffetas, with tiny checks of black and white; crossed and re-crossed with bars of satin in colors; 20 in. wide.

95c a yard for $1.25 to $1.75 qualities-A large quantity of wholly new silks-new in colorings, new patterns of checks and plaids some on white grounds, some on colored, some on black, some black and white; 20

$1.50 a yard for $3 quality—Fancy taffetas with 2-inch borders of tufted silk stripes, edged with satin; 38 inches wide—8 yds. for a dress pattern; 5 yds. for a skirt pattern; 2½ yds. for a waist.

$2 a yard for $4 quality—Fancy taffetas in shepherd's checks of red-and-white, green-and-white, blue-and-white, and black-and-white, white; with borders of six graduated satin stripes, in companion colors. 54 inches wide—5 yds. for a dress pattern; 4 yds. for a skirt; 11/2 yds. for a waist.

Just a Word of the Furniture

This February selling is almost as big again as we bargained for-which is pleasant, as an endorsement of the Trade Sale, but has this warning in it for you: The special-price lots will be gone long before the month is over. As merchants, it is immaterial whether you buy now or later-we shall do our best for you whenever you come. But please take this as fair notice-The days are limited wherein you can buy furniture at half present worth-which means a fourth to a third under December and January prices. Not everything is reduced, but there are still rather important lots of parlor, bedroom and diningroom furniture.

Paris-made Baby Clothes

The chief of the baby-clothes store is a woman who delights in getting and conjuring the daintiest wear for the little ones. She is just getting off to Paris again, and we'll sell much of the stock now here at half price or thereabouts to clean house. No harm to its daintiness, either.

Long dresses, all hand made; trimmed with lace, at $3.25 to $10—were $6.50 to $20. Skirts to match, at $2.75 to $4 -were $4.75 Dresses in 1 to 8 year sizes, at $2.75 to $11-

FF FLINTS FINE FURNITURE DECORATIVE QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Already questions, some complex, are being put to us about country-house decoration. Here is a simple one:

Is it possible, without radical changes, to make a house with small apartments look roomy, inviting and cool?

YES. By letting a general cool tone rather than many different colors, prevail throughout the house; by using simple furniture and wall decorations that give breadth.

Bring us your questions to answer.
